We've already given you an oral update on our two principal outside requests -- the Legislative Liaison interest in the OPC history for the GAO investigation of the resettlement of Nazi war criminals and the handful of requests on OSS matters from the Army's Center of Military History. There has been no additional action on either.

We did answer several phone queries. One came from a Chinese translator at FBIS who wanted help with a name and an identification. (It was readily apparent that the reference was to Vannevar Bush --a bit outside our charter, but we were happy to oblige.) Another was from a CRD declassifier who wanted to confirm that a reference in a manuscript pertained to a [redacted] We checked it out for him in the history of the [redacted] On 2 July, [redacted] who called in search of the [redacted] Report, was referred to the IG. [redacted] finally got the photographic collection transferred back to P&PD, relieving the congestion in our vault. She is moving ahead with her review of our documentary holdings at Records Center. STAT

Sue has finished transcribing the Schlesinger interviews. She also reports a profitable day of researching HIC's files on DDCIs for biographic background on these gentlemen.

Charley has turned in a draft of the main portion of his first chapter.
